City Election Tuesday Seven Vie for Council

About 1,500 Greenbelters are expected to trek to the polls next Tuesday, September 16, to cast their votes for the five city council members who will head the municipal government for the next two years. The three polling places at the Greenbelt Municipal Building (3rd precinct), North End Elementary School (6th precinct), and the Springhill Lake Community Center (8th precinct), will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

All five incumbents are seeking re-election. Mayor Richard Pilski, Gil Weidenfeld, Charles Schwan, Thomas X. White, and Richard Castaldi. Two other candidates competing for spots are Jack M. Queen and Virginia Moryadas. Biographies of the candidates appear on page 4.

Election Procedures

All council members are elected at large. In order for a candidate to be elected, he must receive 40 percent or more of the votes cast. If fewer than five candidates receive such a vote, a run-off election will be held one week later on Tuesday, September 23.

In the run-off election, the ballot will consist of those unsuccessful candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to twice as many names as there are positions to be filled. Candidates polling the greatest number of votes are declared winners in the run-off election, regardless of the percentage of votes received.

The 40-percent requirement for election was introduced in 1967. Prior to that a majority vote was required, usually resulting in run-off elections. Since 1967, no run-offs have taken place.

Each voter is entitled to vote for five candidates. Voting for fewer than five obviously increases the possibility of a run-off election.

Registration Count

The number of Greenbelters registered to vote is 3,053, down 14% from the 3,568 registered in 1973. Only 54 percent of the registered voters cast ballots in 1973, with the highest percentages registered in North End (62%) and Center (59%).

This year the Center precinct had 1,243 registrants; the North End precinct, 1,139; and the Springhill Lake precinct, 671. Springhill Lake had the greatest drop in registration — 33% from its 1973 total of 997. North End had an 11% drop, while Center had a 4% drop.

If all five council members are elected September 16, there will be an organizational meeting on Monday, September 22 (This meeting is set by charter).

Upon being sworn in, the newly elected council members will choose the mayor. Although the charter is silent on this point, past councils have generally chosen the top vote-gatherer.

Special Contest Winners

Greenbelt certainly couldn't be called a "sleepy little town" as everyone could see at the Special Contests held on Labor Day at the Labor Day Festival. There were activities available for the crawling infant to the senior citizen. A total of 79 individuals participated in seven events.

Trophies were awarded as follows: Diaper Derby — 1st place, E. Paredes; 2nd place, Shawn Haines; 3rd place, Pat Kellaher, Jr. Foot Balloon Burst (pre-schoolers) — 1st place, Danny Kellaher; 2nd place, Kieran Lally; 3rd place, Angela Garilli. Bubble Gum Burst (ages 6 — 8) — 1st place, Cheryl Miller; 2nd place, Karen Bailey; 3rd place, Mary Christian. Watermelon Eating (ages 9-11) — 1st place, Mike Bracken; 2nd place, Lesley Bracken; 3rd place, Laurie Hastings. Sack Balloon Race (ages 12-14) — 1st place, Marc Bruce; 2nd place, Lisa Kellaher; 3rd place, Theresa Spivey. Pie Eating Contest (ages 15-18) — 1st place, Steve Markowich; 2nd place, Mike Foster; 3rd place, Mark Felsher. Three-Legged Race (couples) — 1st place, Greg and Meg D'Esposito; 2nd place, Al and Rosemary Felsher; 3rd place, Helen and Frank Kellaher.

Labor Day Race Results

by Larry Noel

A total of 191 people finished the two-mile and the 15 kilometer (9.3) mile races held as part of the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival on Sunday, August 31. The weather was good for running the longer race, but the lake path was wet and muddy. Seventeen Greenbelters finished the two-mile which had 97 finishers, including some families, many women and children, with everyone receiving an award. The race was won by Paul Repavi in 10:11, a high school runner from Fairfax, Va. The first female was Dottie Rowe, 19, from Gaithersburg, Md., one of the best in the Washington area, who finished 9th in 11:31. Andy Feeney (19) of Northway was the first Greenbelter, finishing 4th in 11:01.

The featured 15 kilometer race had a field of 94 finishers, and was won by Al Naylor, former high school miler from Northwestern in 50:17.4, just 2 minutes and 32 seconds behind the record set in 1973 by Jack Fultz. There were nine Greenbelters who finished this race led by Jim Isenberg (24) of Ridge Road who finished 14th in 54:35. Others were Tom Noel (14) 28th in 57:48; Ken Brown, Springhill Drive (31) 38th in 59:34; Marty Greenbaum (30) 39th in 59:48; Milt Greenbaum (23) 53rd in 63:11; Larry Wenzel (23) 59th in 64:21; Bill Bishop (41) 71st in 66:27; John Hanyok (22) 73rd in 66:29 and Hugh Jascourt (40) 85th in 69:42. Five women finished this race led by Anna Mae Diehl of Arlington, Va. in 63:26 for 56th place. A complete list of all finishers will be posted at the Youth Center.

Council Holds Final Meeting of Term

by Bob McGee

As is becoming traditional with the Greenbelt city council the last meeting—on Monday, September 8, 1975—before elections was all sweetness and light. It wasn't maudlin' or a lot of sentimental nonsense, but just the very nice kind of discussion that sort of confirms that Greenbelt is a place where, despite differences, you can end up liking each other.

The first good thing to happen was the introduction and official welcome to Greenbelt by council, of the Huol family, refugees from Cambodia (see last week's issue). Attending with Mrs. Huol and her four children were Joe Mulvihill, who spearheaded the St. Hugh's sponsoring activities, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Scott, 3 Olivewood Court, with whom the family is living during their stay in Greenbelt.

Mayor Richard Pilski surprised everyone with a nicely rendered welcome speech, all delivered in French in deference to Mrs. Huol who could speak no English. Also, in English, he spoke of how this action — bringing the Huol family to Greenbelt — represented the best traditions of America.

Councilman Charles Schwan was also eloquent in his welcome, speaking of how "our own largesse enriches us." Councilman Richard Castaldi stated that he hoped the family's stay here would be as gratifying as living in Greenbelt has been to him.

Councilman Gil Weidenfeld spoke of what a friendly place Greenbelt is and how the family should feel free to call on council. Finally, councilman Thomas White stated that he wished to commend the people of Greenbelt for the warm response they have given to the family, and particularly the Scotts, Joe Mulvihill and Msgr. O'Donnell for their special efforts.

Deferred Items

Council then hastily moved through a number of items of business, most of which were deferred to the next elective council for final action. Three APB reports, relating to zoning map amendments for Cipriano property and the Beltway-Greenbelt property, and recommending against one-way traffic on Parkway Road, were accepted from the chairman, Donald Volk.

Two ordinances relating to tax credits for the elderly and disabled were remanded for amendment to place them in conformity with county ceilings after Mrs. Green and Mr. Kendall, members of the audience, spoke of the confusion they were having between city and county forms and differing rates for deductions.

Other Action

Council approved a bid award of $3,280.33 for a fifteen station circuit trainer gym machine for the new Springhill Lake Recreation Center from the Atlantic Health and Fitness Products of Glen Burnie, Maryland. Council also deferred action on a request for a three year extension of lease by Gunner's Mate, Inc. for the concession stand at the Lake Park and swimming pool. Jan Kuhn of Lakeview Circle thought council should let the park revert to a natural state which would offer less encouragement to outsiders to use it. She and members of the council stated that any questions they might have did not relate to the manner in which the concessions were operated by the Bowmans which they felt was commendable.

Council, on a motion by Schwan, approved a $100 contribution to the Young America group of St. Hugh's to assist them in traveling to Florida where they will perform as one of the American History group selections of the Freedom Foundation. Mayor Pilski was also authorized to approach the Bicentennial Committee to act as sponsor for the group.

Council received a staff manning survey report and recommendations from a committee of Greenbelt Police Lodge #32, Sgt. Smith, Chairman. Also received was the resignation of James Gianfagna from APB. Gianfagna, who is moving to Columbia, Md., was lauded for his efforts on behalf of the city.

The meeting drew to a close with Mayor Pilski stating that he had derived a great deal of satisfaction from city affairs during the past two years, while Schwan thought everyone worked well together. White also stated he had a rewarding first term and complimented the city staff "for never causing me embarrassment because of the manner in which they performed their functions." Castaldi also enjoyed his term and Weidenfeld thought that, despite differences at times, it had been a productive two years.

Manager James Giese said that he wouldn't try to compare this council with previous ones "particularly with a former councilman sitting here taking notes for the News Review," but felt that it had done a very steady and productive job. Finally, the Rev. Bucher stated that, after sitting through many council meetings, it is his conclusion that this council has done a "great job in meeting the challenges of the past two years." It was all rather nice.

Golddigger Registration

The Greenbelt Golddigger Majorettes will hold their annual registration on Tues., Sept. 16, 23, and 30. Anyone interested in joining the Golddiggers is asked to come to the Center Elementary school from 6:30-7:30 p.m. There is no registration fee but each student is required to pay one month's dues and to buy a baton. All new members must be at least 7 years old by Dec. 31.

The Golddiggers have been participating in USTA contests for the past 5 years. Their most recent honor was to be named the Maryland State and Eastern Regional Junior Parade Corps Champions of 1975.

Raps Incumbent Council
To the Editor:

Since the age of miracles is past, at least three of the incumbent council members will be returned to office by default. We may be blessed with all five. Woe is me!

Two more years of reckless waste of tax funds, higher property taxes for unnecessary frills already on the books plus all the additional crackpot projects our officials are so adept at dreaming up.

Mr. Gunn was so right, we certainly do have a dictatorship in Greenbelt and a rubber stamp council. Anyone who doubts it should obtain a copy of the letter the city manager presented to all municipal employees telling them what they could NOT do or say concerning the upcoming city election.

True, these employees do know where the bodies are buried and our municrats don't want the bones to rattle. To the best of my knowledge, the only confidential records/activities in the city offices would be police contacts with juveniles. There should be no other classified information concerning city affairs.

Greenbelt is controlled by a loud vocal minority. Members of advisory boards are appointed by the council, the general public had no choice in the selection . . .

A glaring example is the recommendation by PRAB for expenditure of $15,000 to fill the shallow end of the only city pool with cement. Why? Because the Aquatic Booster Club wants it done and to h— with the hundreds of non-ABC J.Q. Citizens who also pay for use of that facility.

Being a family newspaper, the News Review wouldn't print what I would like to say on the subject of the tennis court lights recently installed in Braden Field, floodlighting my back yard and the back of my home. Most unwelcome intrusion and invasion of privacy.

I do not consider the incumbent council a good investment and they are certainly no friends of mine. Not when the city property tax rate has increased by 20% in five years, with reassessment, in my case, 34%. Add to that the increase of $1 per month to each homeowner for waste collection, a vital service which should be covered by the property tax we pay. With friends like that who needs enemies?

In protest, I shall refuse to vote for any incumbent, casting only one vote. Mr. Queen appears to be the only candidate with the proper credentials in city management. We need a new face and a qualified member on the council. Good luck, Mr. Queen.

Viola Keer

Vote
To the Editor:

The most practical way a responsible citizen can actively participate in governmental functions is to become oriented with the policies discerned by elected representatives and then choose the choice from the chaff and VOTE accordingly. If you cannot make up your own mind there are those who are eager to do it for you, sometimes with devastating effects. Voting is an awesome responsibility and one that should never be taken frivolously. Many listened to bad advice and voted for Agnew to repulse Mahoney. This made clear to me why we have the jackass for our emblem. (It may be suggested that the mule replace the jackass for he too is a half-breed of sorts.) I'm sorry that came to mind but in my youth we were told that medicine had to be bitter if we were to get better, and hopefully this will be the cure for the party-breech malady . . . or, go independent!

The importance of one vote was emphasized in our own locale by our present Mayor who once won office by ONE VOTE—and all of us take credit for it.

Politicians recommend themselves most highly. Statesmen need no recommendation! Your voice—by your vote—will determine which of the two fills the office!!!

THANKS

To the Editor:

To say that I am bewildered and amazed at having been selected as Greenbelt's Outstanding Citizen for 1975 is putting it mildly. However, I wish to take this opportunity to thank Greenbelt and everyone directly involved in bestowing this honor upon me.

Three For Greenbelt

I ask my friends and neighbors to trust Greenbelt to these good citizens and to make them your first choice for City Council:

THOMAS X. WHITE — Incumbent, a tough civic leader and a skilled administrator, he is Greenbelt's able environmental advocate on the City Council and on regional public health and water resources policy boards.

RICHARD J. CASTALDI — Incumbent and native of Greenbelt, he is the land use and zoning expert on the Council and city spokesman on regional transportation and human resources policy boards.

VIRGINIA H. MORYADAS — A professional planner and effective community participant, she brings to the Council extensive expertise in housing and economic development.

Theirs is a rich tradition of wholesome commitment to our city. Their integrity and ability will continue serving Greenbelt well. Honest.

Swim Team News

by Sue Jones

The Swim Team will hold its annual banquet on Friday, Sept. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in Grenoble Hall. All swim team members are invited to attend.

Last week Carolyn Crowley was omitted from the list of people placing in the Novice Meet. She placed second in the 10 & under girls freestyle.

NO RESERVES?

Let us start with our operating reserves of $614,344 restricted for specific purposes as designated by our board of directors.

Let the members in on this secret, give them a breakdown of expenses. They might object to paying $94,547 to buy back homes, and not selling them again. Those are frozen assets. Try to pay your taxes with that asset.

The members might object to putting up the investment money for appliances etc. to make a few members happy. Can we afford to tie up $67,179 of your money?

The members might object to an inventory high of $119,500 perhaps half in oil and get no credit for same. The members were charged for the oil left in the tanks at the end of the year.

The frames should object to a $63,000 billing toward the moratorium in 1975, when only $11,623 was earmarked for same, with a possible $17,000 for boiler improvement. But the $301,000 for repair & maintenance may include that figure. (from U.S. INCOME TAX REPORT.)

Our By-Laws allows the Board to use MONEY AVAILABLE — but as long as we have an outstanding loan at Suburban Trust of $585,000, there simply is no money AVAILABLE. The members should demand an accounting of that loan.

The unrestricted reserves amount to $122,729. There has been a yearly increase for the frames of 10%, but this year they are paying 17% without even knowing it. The frames are in the unique position of paying for improvements they did not get, and may never get, unless the members show some interest in how their money is being allocated by their board of directors.

The board owes the members an explanation about a $245,000 deposit in a local bank, not in treasury certificates, and marked as G.N.M.A. account. As only about $147,000 was left of the moratorium money for heating improvements, where does the extra $100,000 come from?

Could it be the $94,547 repurchase of G.H.I. units covers that sum? This question should be most interesting to the membership.

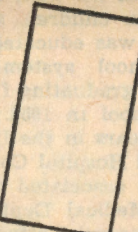

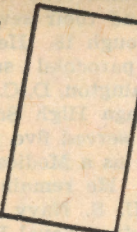

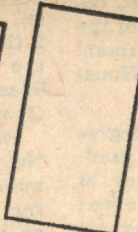

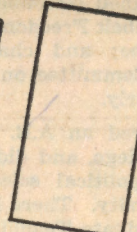

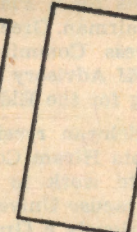

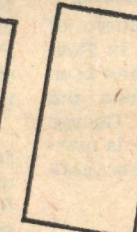

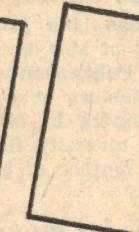

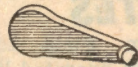

Some of the men manipulating your G.H.I. funds are presently asking for your vote as city council. (A good bedside manner does not necessarily make him a good doctor.)

All figures are taken from Arthur Andersen 1974 audit or the 1974 U.S. Income Tax Report.

Schwan will continue to:

Please Give Me A Minute Of Your Time

As Tuesday, September 16 draws nearer, the candidates for City Council enter the home stretch of their campaign. Whether the candidate just started his campaign after Labor Day or whether the candidate has been out working hard for the last two months (as Jack Queen has), the next few days are very important. The next four days are the last chance to touch the minds of the voters.

Qualifications:

Jack Queen has put forth a special effort to win the confidence and the support of our community with his own unique qualifications. A few are listed below.

1) Queen's main qualification for public office is his devotion to integrity in politics — a public office is a public trust. As Chairman of the Speaker's Bureau for Common Cause, Queen has been monitoring the conflicts of interest of office-holders for several years.

2) Who would be better qualified to deal with problems of city management than Jack Queen? He has formal training in City Management and City Planning.

3) Although Jack Queen has served on local boards (Advisory Planning Board, the Council of Government Human Resources Board and the Housing Technical Committee) he has also worked at the national level as an aide to U.S. Congressman Ken Heckler. (Democrat, W.Va.). Queen understands how senseless duplication of efforts at the local and higher levels of government costs the taxpayers dollars.

4) Jack Queen has had the opportunity to visit with most Greenbelters to rediscover the good spirit of this unique town and also to discuss some of the annoying problems. Although Queen hopes to get to each door, he has publicized his address and phone number for those he may miss.

Goals:

Based on his own survey of Greenbelters, Jack Queen has some goals for the next council. A few are listed below. He will continue to listen for others.

1) Comprehensive public disclosure of campaign contributions. The present law is very weak.

2) Better crime protection against petty thievery and other nuisance crimes.
(A better mix of foot patrol and squad cars deserves strong consideration).

3) Increase tax relief for the elderly on fixed incomes. Seek ways to lower or at least maintain present taxes for all Greenbelters through wiser spending programs and Revenue Sharing.

4) More citizen input in consideration of the housing project for the elderly.

5) More realistic transportation for the elderly and the handicapped . . . A mini-bus deserves strong consideration over a large bus.

6) Encourage more community participation and communication in city council meetings.

7) Safe bikeways are needed. A permanent bathroom facility would be most desirable at the Greenbelt Lake.

8) Encourage better ties between the older and newer sections of Greenbelt, to preserve the uniqueness of our small town community.

A Personal Note From Jack Queen

Fellow Greenbelters:

Many constituents ask me if I would favor increasing the number of city Policemen. I can not favor implementing any plan unless I have thoroughly studied the needs of the total community as well as the increased costs.

Personally, I will not use the time of the police force for delivering me messages or documents (as is now the practice). I will pick up my own documents and packets from the Municipal Building. Each time I go to the Municipal Building will be another opportunity to investigate the way our money is being spent.

After a brief visit in Fredericton, New Brunswick, with the Anderson boys' grandfather, Dr. Nels Anderson (a federal administrator during the construction of Greenbelt), and sister, Liz MacLellan; John, Mike and Nels continued into the province of Quebec. There they camped, hiked, and explored the rugged Gaspé peninsula, and climbed Mt. Albert and Mt. Jacques Cartier, the highest in eastern Canada. The provincial youth hostels, where they often stayed, provided the opportunity to meet many young people from Quebec, France and the U.S. Hassell, who remained to sightsee, swim and canoe with the MacLellans, was rejoined by the other boys for the return to Greenbelt.

The winner of the Bean Guess at St. Hugh's Labor Day Booth was Mrs. Ruth C. Lates of 4A Hillside. Her guess of 15,001 came closest to the official count of 15,423. Congratulations!

A Message to Greenbelt Residents

From Mayor Pro-Tem Gil Weidenfeld

Greenbelt is the third largest city in Prince George's County and the tenth largest in the state and, therefore, should exercise a leadership position on county and state levels. This leadership is needed to get and keep Greenbelt's problems before county and state legislators.

I believe that one of Greenbelt's major problems is tax inequity. Not only are our property taxes too high, but in addition, Greenbelt's citizens are not getting a fair distribution of the income taxes they pay to the county.

During the past two years, I have been very active in county and state municipal organizations working for Greenbelt. In addition to attending meetings with the Prince George's County Municipal Association, I have spent almost every Saturday in Annapolis during the 90 day legislative period of the Maryland State Legislature. I have been working with the Maryland Municipal League on proposed legislation to obtain a better tax break for Greenbelt and other towns and cities. Even at this time of the summer, I am attending meetings twice a month in Annapolis to formulate proposed legislation for tax relief.

While these meetings are a heavy burden on my time, they do not reduce my total effort on other problems the city faces. Indeed, during my four years on the city council, I have never missed a single meeting. Also, my door and phone are always open to receive your comments and complaints. The many residents who have contacted me know that I have been responsive to their concerns and have always made an immediate effort to take action on their problems. In addition, I have often taken time off from my regular job to represent the city or to be present at hearings or special meetings with county, state or federal officials.

I have worked hard toward making Greenbelt a better community and having Greenbelt recognized as a leader on county and state levels. Now, I need your help to continue this work and I ask for your support on September 16 for a good Greenbelt government and a better tax break for Greenbelters.

Sincerely,

Gil Weidenfeld

Information Questionnaire, City of Greenbelt

Dear Resident:

Voters at the City Election are asked to take a few minutes additional time to complete the following questionnaire. Your answers are confidential. The completed questionnaire should be folded and placed in the box provided at the polling place. The answers will be tabulated and will serve to inform the newly elected City Council and staff how Greenbelt citizens feel about the subjects covered. Place a check mark after those answers which reflect your opinion. If uncertain or don't know, leave blank.

3. Housing for the Elderly

The City Council has been considering the construction of rental apartment housing specially designed for elderly citizens. It has been determined that a low-interest mortgage for 100% of the cost of construction and site acquisition can be obtained from the State of Maryland. The Federal Government (HUD) will provide rental supplements based upon ability to pay so that full rental rates sufficient to pay the mortgage, maintenance and operating expenses can be assured. Occupancy will be restricted to persons 62 and over (in the case of couples, one person must be age 62 or over). First priority will be given to Greenbelt residents. The City would not use any City tax monies.

Do you favor the City undertaking such a program?

Yes No (see below)

4. Intra-City Bus Service

A preliminary transportation study completed for the City recommends the provision of intra-city bus service and also projects the need for subsidies to maintain such a service. What is your opinion on the need for such a service?

a. Greenbelt: needs local bus service does not need additional bus service

b. If provided the bus service should be routed:

Only within the city

To connect to the B&O commuter rail service

To connect with the nearest METRO station

Between the city and the University of Maryland

To go to Goddard Space Center

To go to Agriculture Research Center

If provided to one of the above locations would you use the service regularly?

Yes No

5. Construction of METRO (Rapid Rail Transit)

The METRO system now under construction is planned to have one line from D.C. to Prince George's Plaza and end with a station in the vicinity of Greenbelt Road and the

B&O Railroad. Recently, there have been proposals to change this route so that it will end in the vicinity of I-95 and the Beltway with direct access to the station parking lot from these highways. A major problem of METRO is that due to inflation there are not enough funds to complete construction. This County's share of funds was raised by the issuance of bonds to be repaid out of County taxes and, unless additional grants from the Federal government are obtained, it may be necessary to issue more bonds to complete the project or reduce the length of the system.

Please express your opinion about the following statements:

No
Agree Disagree Opinion

a. I expect to use METRO regularly when it is completed.

b. Additional funds should be raised to complete the METRO system

c. METRO should be constructed to the vicinity of Greenbelt Road and the B&O Railroad as originally planned

d. Instead of the original plan, METRO should be constructed to I-95 and the Beltway

e. There should be a METRO stop at the University of Maryland between Greenbelt and Prince George's Plaza, even though there will be added expense

f. METRO should be constructed underground in areas occupied by homes even though it is more expensive

6. Improvements to Baltimore-Washington Parkway

The City Council has adopted the following position on proposed improvements to this highway:

a. The Baltimore-Washington Parkway embodies unique scenic and aesthetic character that merits preservation.

b. Improvements to the Parkway are necessary but, in general, the present four lane width should be maintained and, in no case, more than six lanes constructed, and that only if necessary between the Beltway and the District of Columbia.

c. Council opposes the construction of a connector between I-95 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway.

d. The prohibition against truck traffic should be maintained.

e. The existing interchange with Southway and Greenbelt should remain.

Do you agree Disagree

7. Bond Issue

Bond issues are used to finance major expenditures and construction projects. Bonds are repaid over an extended number of years out of taxes levied each year. Bond issues must be authorized by the voters at a referendum election. The $950,000 bond issue last authorized has now been spent or allocated for capital programs now underway. Therefore, if new major expenditures are to be undertaken, additional bonds will need to be authorized. A number of projects have been proposed.

a. Do you believe that a bond issue should be considered at this time?

Yes No

b. What projects do you feel should be financed by a new bond issue?

Purchase of parkland

Development of parkland

Construction of athletic fields - ballfields

Street improvements

Bicycle paths

New police station

Addition to Municipal Building

Construction of sidewalks along streets without sidewalks

Other
